From the Administrator's Desk

Well, it's time to put away the summer toys and get out the winter coats! Well, not really, but we are getting close and it's time to start thinking about the activities coming up at 301. Please check the calendar and plan to attend one if not all of the planned events. As usual, if you see an event that peaks your interest or if you have any ideas, please feel free to volunteer your thoughts and maybe a little of your time.

Speaking of volunteers, I want to pass on my very special thanks to all of you that have been working so hard to keep 301 going. As usual, I won't name names in fear of leaving someone out, but thanks for everything that you do to help us!

As most of you know, there have been quite a few issues surrounding the new dues procedures that Moose International put into place. Believe me, they've been as big a headache for me as they have you! I will try and persuade our editor to run a copy of the explanation from Mooseheart somewhere in this newsletter. In the meantime, feel free to contact me with your concerns and I will attempt to address them as best as I can.

Fraternally,
Bob Wolf, Administrator

This is the latest information from Moose International regarding dues and cards. Hopefully by the time dues are due in December, the issues will be corrected. When paying your dues, I urge you to send them directly to Moose Intl, this will speed up the process considerably.

MEMBERSHIP CARDS

Over 150,000 September dues payments have been received to date and more than 100,000 of the newly designed membership cards have been mailed to members throughout the fraternity, with thousands more being mailed each week.

REMINDER: Lodges are asked to be fraternal and understanding when members arrive with expired September membership cards through October 31, 2005.

THERE WAS AN ADDITIONAL MEMO THIS WEEK: Apparently several areas of the paperwork are behind. If you receive a second dues notice and have already made your payment, please disregard it.
